Dreams and Personal Preferences

One of my biggest dreams is to travel and explore beautiful places around the world. Among all the destinations, the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France, is my dream place to visit. Seeing the Eiffel Tower in person is something I have always wished for, and I hope to make that dream come true in the future.

I enjoy dreaming big and looking forward to new experiences that create unforgettable memories.

Things I Don't Like

I also have a few personal dislikes. One thing I do not like is the name "Soundar." It is simply a personal preference, and I do not have any specific reason behind it.

Family and Native Place

My mother's native place is Vellore, and many of my relatives live there. Whenever I get a holiday or a long weekend, I enjoy visiting Vellore to spend quality time with my family and relatives.

I have a cousin sister named Janani and a cousin brother named Lokesh. Whenever we are all in Vellore together, we usually go out as a family, visit different places, and enjoy spending time with each other. These moments have created many happy memories in my life.

One of my favorite places in Vellore is a temple that I love visiting whenever I am there. Visiting the temple gives me peace of mind, and it has become an important part of every trip to my native place.

Overall, Vellore holds a special place in my heart because it is where I get to reconnect with my relatives, spend time with my siblings, and create wonderful family memories.
